

Jarlene Cusi

Jarlene is a highly talented and experienced performer whose outstanding wide dynamic vocal range and genuine personality will capture your audience.

She began singing classically at the age of 10 and had the privilege to be selected as part of a concert at the Music Museum - a very famous theatre in Manila, The Philippines. She was also invited to perform with her then pop group, 'Kids Of The Nation' at large events and functions hosted by famous celebrities and also for the then Filipino President Gloria Arroyo at the Malacanang Palace. She also won a lot of singing contests nationwide.

By the age of 18, Jarlene's love for music had taken her all across Asia where she has been performing at a number of prestigious hotels, focussing on live jazz.

Jarlene is currently based in Hong Kong where she is also a reputable voice coach and mainly teaches kids to help them discover a passion for music and help to develop their singing ability.
